

Pallets crumble, but your back doesn't have to

Does it surprise you that this...

Can lead to this?

Crumbling pallets, chunks of wood, shrink wrap... They're all part of the job right??? Well, yeah, but that doesn't mean they need to be part of the work surface.

- Employers, provide plenty of trash bins.
- Workers, clean as you go. If you see debris, take the time to clean it up.

Prevent injuries to yourself and others. Clean up debris.
