INTRODUCTION

This document is an apprenticeship program standard. Apprenticeship program standards govern how an apprenticeship works and have specific requirements. This document will explain the requirements.

The director of the Department of Labor and Industries (L&I) appoints the Washington State Apprenticeship and Training Council (WSATC) to regulate apprenticeship program standards. The director appoints and deputizes an assistant director to be known as the supervisor of apprenticeship who oversees administrative functions through the apprenticeship section at the department.

The WSATC is the sole regulatory body for apprenticeship standards in Washington. It approves, administers, and enforces apprenticeship standards, and recognizes apprentices when either registered with L&I's apprenticeship section, or under the terms and conditions of a reciprocal agreement. WSATC also must approve any changes to apprenticeship program standards.

Apprenticeship programs have sponsors. A sponsor operates an apprenticeship program and declares their purpose and policy herein to establish an organized system of registered apprenticeship education and training. The sponsor recognizes WSATC authority to regulate and will submit a revision request to the WSATC when making changes to an apprenticeship program standard.

Apprenticeships are governed by federal law (29 U.S.C 50), federal regulations (29 CFR Part 29 & 30), state law (49.04 RCW) and administrative rules (WAC 296-05). These standards conform to all of the above and are read together with federal and state laws and rules

Standards are changed with WSATC approval. Changes are binding on apprentices, sponsors, training agents, and anyone else working under an agreement governed by the standards. Sponsors may have to maintain additional information as supplemental to these standards. When a standard is changed, sponsors are required to notify apprentices and training agents. If changes in federal or state law make any part of these standards illegal, the remaining parts are still valid and remain in force. Only the part made illegal by changes in law is invalid. L&I and the WSATC may cooperate to make corrections to the standards if necessary to administer the standards.

Sections of these standards identified as bold “insert text” fields are specific to the individual program standards and may be modified by a sponsor submitting a revised standard for approval by the WSATC. All other sections of these standards are boilerplate and may only be modified by the WSATC. See WAC 296-05-003 for the definitions necessary for use with these standards.

Sponsor Introductory Statement (Required):

The science of electricity is constantly changing and expanding. With this increasing knowledge, the Electrical Industry has expanded from nothing to the third largest industry in the United States in less than one century. This rapid expansion means that the electrical apprentice must be given a sound basic training in the knowledge of the trade, supplemented by sufficient instruction in the theories of electrical science.

The electrical trade is unique in that it is mechanical, technical and professional. It must select people who have a natural aptitude for using tools and, at the same time, are gifted enough to master the intricacies of electric science, who can and will keep up with the progress of the industry, and master a knowledge of the thousands of installation and maintenance procedures.

The Electrical Industry, by its very nature, places a high degree of personal responsibility on the individual journey-level worker. While supervision is provided on many jobs, the electricians still find themselves called upon constantly to make decisions regarding the best and safest method of installation to produce a given result.

Electrical installations today have become very complex and a faulty installation can prove extremely expensive and hazardous. Much of the important work is hidden from view when the job is completed, and a defect in this hidden work can cause property damage and endanger human life. The modern journey-level worker takes pride in the appearance of his/her work, as well as in the technical correctness and structural soundness.

The Apprenticeship Committee has dedicated its time to develop an efficient program of apprenticeship so that the apprentice of today, through a systematic program of schooling and on-the-job training, can become the qualified all-around journey-level worker of tomorrow. The degree of success that the Apprenticeship Committee has in its operation will depend entirely upon the willingness of the various segments of the Electrical Industry in the area to cooperate in this type of joint activity.

All functions of the Apprenticeship Committee shall be on the basis of non-profit endeavor for the good and welfare of apprenticeship and training for the industry and for the best interest of the apprentice, management, labor and the public.

I. GEOGRAPHIC AREA COVERED:

The sponsor must train inside the area covered by these standards. If the sponsor wants to train outside the area covered by these standards, the sponsor must enter a portability agreement with a sponsor outside the area, and provide evidence of such an agreement for compliance purposes. Portability agreements permit training agents to use apprentices outside the area covered by the standards. Portability agreements are governed by WAC 296-05-303(4)(g).

The area which these Standards cover shall be the following counties in Washington: Asotin, Benton, Columbia, Franklin, Garfield, Walla Walla, Yakima, and Kittitas.

LU 112 – NECA ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP COMMITTEE

Applicants and apprentices please note that while the State of Washington has no responsibility or authority in the State of Oregon, the JATC will apply the same standards and guidelines to apprentices registered in the program while working in the Oregon counties of Baker, Gilliam, Grant, Morrow, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, and Wheeler.

The term of apprenticeship for an individual apprentice may be measured through the completion of the industry standard for on-the-job learning (at least two thousand hours) (time-based approach), the attainment of competency (competency-based approach), or a blend of the time-based and competency-based approaches (hybrid approach) [WAC 296-05-315].

Completion of Apprenticeship:

Once an apprentice has completed the required related supplemental instruction and the required hours of on-the-job training, the apprentice will have 60 days to provide the appropriate passing State Electrical Certification exam results to the JATC. Failure to provide the appropriate passing exam results within 60 days will result in suspension from the program until the passing exam results are produced. Failure to provide the passing results to the JATC within 120 days of the suspension will result in termination from the program. The JATC may elect to require repeat of RSI, re-rating the apprentice to a lesser wage progression or special tutoring.

When the above requirement has been met, the employers and IBEW Local 112 will be notified that the apprentice is to be classified as a journey-level worker and receive the journey-level workers' rate of pay.

V. INITIAL PROBATIONARY PERIOD:

An initial probationary period applies to all apprentices, unless the apprentice has transferred from another program. During an initial probationary period, an apprentice can be discharged without appeal rights. An initial probationary period is stated in hours or competency steps of employment. The initial probationary period is not reduced by advanced credit or standing. During an initial probationary period, apprentices receive full credit for hours and competency steps toward completion of their apprenticeship. Transferred apprentices are not subject to additional initial probationary periods [WAC 296-05-003].

The initial probationary period is [WAC 296-05-316(22)]:

- A. the period following the apprentice's registration into the program. An initial probationary period must not be longer than twenty percent of the term of the entire apprenticeship, or longer than a year from the date the apprenticeship is registered. The WSATC can grant exemptions for longer initial probationary periods if required by law.
- B. the period in which the WSATC or the supervisor of apprenticeship may terminate an apprenticeship agreement at the written request by any affected party. The sponsor or the apprentice may terminate the agreement without a hearing or stated cause. An appeal process is not available to apprentices in their initial probationary period.
 - 1. The first 1600 hours of OJT and satisfactory performance in related training up to the completion of the first school year shall constitute the probationary period for Inside Wireman Apprentices. The Low Energy/Sound and Communication Technician Apprentice probationary period shall be the first 960 hours of OJT and the Residential Electrician Apprentice probationary period shall be the first 800 hours of OJT. During this period, the apprenticeship agreement may be canceled by either party without the formality of a hearing. The Registration Agency shall be notified of such cancellations. Agency shall be notified of any extension of the probationary period (documenting action taken to address the issue(s) involved) in lieu of terminating the apprenticeship agreement.

2. During the probationary period, the JATC shall make a thorough review of the apprentice's ability and development. Advanced standing for previous training or experience does not reduce the probationary period.
 3. Applicants awarded advanced standing at the time of registration shall have their demonstrated skill, knowledge, and overall performance evaluated during the probationary period. Adjustments, to the assigned period of apprenticeship and/or level of related classroom training may be made during the probationary period, following appropriate reviews and evaluation by the JATC. Such reviews and determinations shall be properly documented and applied equally to all apprentices.
- D. Prior to the end of the probationary period, action must be taken on each probationary apprentice to end the probation, extend probation, or cancel the apprenticeship agreement. All interested parties shall be notified of such action.

VI. RATIO OF APPRENTICES TO JOURNEY LEVEL WORKERS

Supervision is the necessary education, assistance, and control provided by a journey-level employee on the same job site at least seventy-five percent of each working day, unless otherwise approved by the WSATC. Sponsors ensure apprentices are supervised by competent, qualified journey-level employees. Journey level-employees are responsible for the work apprentices perform, in order to promote the safety, health, and education of the apprentice.

- A. The journey-level employee must be of the same apprenticeable occupation as the apprentice they are supervising unless otherwise allowed by the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) or the Washington Administrative Code (WAC) and approved by the WSATC.
- B. The numeric ratio of apprentices to journey-level employees may not exceed one apprentice per journey-level worker [WAC 296-05-316(5)].
- C. Apprentices will work the same hours as journey-level workers, except when such hours may interfere with related/supplemental instruction.
- D. Any variance to the rules and/or policies stated in this section must be approved by the WSATC.
- E. The ratio must be described in a specific and clear manner, as to the application in terms of job site, work group, department or plant:

The ratio of apprentices to journey-level workers is as follows:

LU 112 – NECA ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP COMMITTEE

A. Inside Wireman Apprentice

The overall ratio is 2 apprentices for every 3 journey-level workers or fraction thereof. This ratio can be used on each job, contract or shop in conformance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

B. Low Energy/Sound & Communication Apprentice

The overall ratio is 2 apprentices for every 3 journey-level technicians or fraction thereof. This ratio can be used on each job, contract or shop in conformance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

C. Residential Electrician Apprentice

Every training agent who steadily employs one or more residential journey-level workers may have two residential apprentices for every residential journey-level worker on the job in conformance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Apprentices with a minimum of 7,000 hours of OJT will be allowed to work without the direct supervision of a journey-level person provided that they have been issued a six-month, nonrenewable, unsupervised electrical training certificate by the Washington State Labor and Industries Electrical Section. Such apprentices will not be counted for the purposes of a ratio calculation nor be allowed to supervise other apprentices.

VII. APPRENTICE WAGES AND WAGE PROGRESSION:

- A. Apprentices must be paid at least Washington's minimum wage, unless a local ordinance or a collective bargaining agreement require a higher wage. Apprentices must be paid according to a progressively increasing wage scale. The wage scale for apprentices is based on the specified journey-level wage for their occupation. Wage increases are based on hours worked or competencies attained. The sponsor determines wage increases. Sponsors must submit the journey-level wage at least annually or whenever changed to the department as an addendum to these standards. Journey-level wage reports may be submitted on a form provided by the department. Apprentices and others should contact the sponsor or the Department for the most recent Journey-level wage rate.
- B. Sponsors can grant advanced standing, and grant a wage increase, when apprentices demonstrate abilities and mastery of their occupation. When advanced standing is granted, the sponsor notifies the employer/training agent of the wage increase the apprenticeship program standard requires.

LU 112 – NECA ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP COMMITTEE

This JATC has established periods of apprenticeship as stipulated below.

Advancements are not automatic. The following requirements must be met:

- Completion of OJT hour requirement, (Depending on period)
- Successful progress and/or completion of related training requirements
- All monthly work progress reports turned in on time.
- Satisfactory instructor reports
- All tuition and book fees must be paid
- Satisfactory and current on-the-job training evaluations must be turned into the training center office.

The apprenticeship committee will review and act on up-rates after the above requirements have been satisfied. Advancement notices will then be mailed to the apprentice and employer.

VIII. WORK PROCESSES:

The apprentice shall receive on the job instruction and work experience as is necessary to become a qualified journey-level worker versed in the theory and practice of the occupation covered by these standards. The following is a condensed schedule of work experience, which every apprentice shall follow as closely as conditions will permit. The following work process descriptions pertain to the occupation being defined.

In order that the apprentice may acquire the necessary skills of the trade in its various categories, he/she (as near as possible) shall be provided with employment in these categories with specified amounts of experience required.

All such work shall be performed under the supervision of a journey-level worker. Supervision should not be of such nature as to prevent the development of responsibility and initiative.

At the end of each progression period of employment, the Apprenticeship Committee shall examine the progress of the apprentice on the job and in related instruction.

IX. RELATED/SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION:

The apprentice must attend related/supplemental instruction (RSI). Time spent in RSI shall not be considered as hours of work and the apprentice is not required to be paid.

RSI must be provided in safe and healthy conditions as required by the Washington Industrial Safety and Health Act and applicable federal and state regulations.

Hours spent in RSI are reported to L&I each quarter. Reports must show which hours are unpaid and supervised by a competent instructor versus all other hours (paid and/or unsupervised) for industrial insurance purposes.

For purposes of coverage under the Industrial Insurance Act, the WSATC is an employer and the apprentice is an employee when an unpaid, supervised apprentice is injured while under the direction of a competent instructor and participating in RSI activities.

If apprentices do not attend required RSI, they may be subject to disciplinary action by the sponsor.

A. The methods of related/supplemental training must be indicated below (check those that apply):

- Supervised field trips

INTRODUCTION

As the Electrical Construction Industry improves each day, so strives the Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee to improve the education and training of the younger generations for the Electrical Construction Industry.

The rules set in these Policies and Procedures are stringent to promote a quality craftsman in the Electrical Construction Industry, and outstanding citizens for the communities. The Electrical Construction Industry is responsible for maintaining the apprenticeship training program and, by the same token, the apprentice has an obligation to the Electrical Construction Industry to conduct themselves in a responsible manner.

As the apprentice is better informed of the apprenticeship program and conscientiously assumes their responsibilities during their apprenticeship, they will be better prepared with the proper skills and knowledge necessary to assume a better position as Journey-level Electrical Worker in the Electrical Construction Industry when they graduate.

Let us strive together as apprentices with Labor and Management to make this industry the best industry in this nation and the world.

JATC RESPONSIBILITIES

ARTICLE 10 - PURPOSE OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- 30-4. Apprentices shall perform all the duties and tasks on the job as are associated with the craft and an apprenticeship.
- 30-5. Overtime shall not interfere with scheduled classes of related educational instruction and shall not be detrimental to the health and safety of the apprentices. Overtime hours worked shall be recorded as actual hours worked.
- 30-6. Each apprentice will be solely responsible for maintaining a work record book with copy of the record each month to be turned into the Trust Office by the 10th day of the following month.
- 30-7. Monthly work records not turned in by the 10th day of the following month will result in the next scheduled update being held for thirty (30) days for each offense. Three consecutive offenses will constitute action by the JATC for not complying with these Policies and Procedures.
- 30-8. Hours worked, working conditions, overtime, health and welfare, vacation and pension provisions are those agreed to in the Collective Bargaining Agreement currently in effect between the Inland Empire Chapter of the NECA and the Local Union #112 of the IBEW
- 30-9. Work habits that include safety violations, sloppy workmanship, negative attitudes or refusal to do or help with assigned work will result in the apprentice being sent home until he/she appears before the JATC at their next scheduled meeting. The importance of maintaining good customer relations for the IBEW an NECA is critical. Work place behaviors or actions by apprentices that threaten positive relations with customers will not be tolerated.
- 30-10. The use of alcoholic beverages, non-prescription drugs or other controlled substances on the job shall be reason for the apprentice to be canceled from the Apprenticeship Program.
