Purpose:

To restructure horse racing rates, reporting, and classification rules to better address exposure. The Washington Horse Racing Commission (WHRC) will continue to collect and pay premiums to the department for the industry. The WHRC believes this change will encourage more participation in the industry from those inside and outside Washington State.

Citation of existing rules affected by this order:

- Amended: See Attachment A
- Suspended: See Attachment A

Statutory authority for adoption: RCW 51.04.020, RCW 51.16.035, 51.16.210

Other authority : RCW 51.16.210

PERMANENT RULE (Including Expedited Rule Making)

Adopted under notice filed as WSR 12-21-105 on October 23, 2012.

Describe any changes other than editing from proposed to adopted version:

Since publication of the proposal, we have clarified language in several places and found one mistake that we have corrected. The proposed rules indicated premiums for classification 6618 for horse owners are calculated on a per horse basis and we have corrected this to indicate premiums are calculated for classification 6618 on a percentage of ownership in a horse or horses.
