

Reducing pinch force in roofing tasks

Description

Residential roofers may use high hand force to pinch. Shingling can require high pinch force combined with awkward postures of the wrists and repetition. Sliding shingles or using two hands can reduce the pinch force required while placing shingles.

Sliding shingles or using two hands reduces pinching force while placing shingles.

e-mail an L&I ergonomist
(ergonomics@LNI.wa.gov)

