Payment Method Authorization Instructions

What can I use this form for?

Use this form to request a new payment method or to change your current payment method with L&I. Until your new option takes effect, you will continue to receive your benefits through your current payment method.

What are the payment options available?

1. Direct Deposit
2. L&I Debit Card
3. Paper Check

Who can complete this form?

The claimant or alternate recipient(s) authorized to receive benefits on an open or pension claim.

If you are an alternate recipient, complete your information in the person receiving payment section of the application.

If you're signing this form for a worker or alternate recipient, L&I must have legal documentation on file for the request to be processed (for example: power of attorney, guardianship paperwork, etc.).

When will my direct deposit start?

It can take up to 30 business days for a direct deposit request to process.

Direct deposit limitations:

L&I can only make direct deposits into banks and credit unions in the United States and US territories.

How does the debit card work?

Once we receive your request, you'll receive a debit card from The issuing bank in about 10 business days. Once you activate your card, your benefit payments are deposited directly onto your debit card.

While there is no monthly service fee for using the L&I debit card, certain transactions may incur a fee. Fees are located on the Fee Schedule sent to you with the card.

www.usbankreliacard.com

Paper check:

If you are currently receiving a paper check and want to continue receiving a paper check, you don't need to complete this form.

How will I know my Direct Deposit or Debit Card payment method request is accepted?

Your receipt of payment into your bank account or onto your debit card is your notification of payment method acceptance.

If we are unable to process your form, you will be notified by phone or mail.

How do I update my address?

The address L&I has on file for you must match the information on this form.

You can update your address with L&I through the Claim Account Center online or by completing the Address Change Request for Injured Workers, Crime Victims Address Change Request or Address Change Request for Pensioners all of these forms can be found on www.Lni.wa.gov.
