- (1) This deposit is a precondition to an Electrical/Telecommunications Contractor's License under RCW 19.28 and must be maintained for one year after the license has expired, or for one year after the contractor notifies the Department that he or she has ceased to do business in the state of Washington.
- (2) This assignment is for the purposes of fulfilling the security requirements of RCW 19.28, which provide as follows:
  - (a) The installation or maintenance of wires or equipment to carry electrical current or to be operated by electrical current must be done according to the conditions of RCW 19.28, which include compliance with any electrical ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted under 19.28.010 (3) in effect at the time of entering the contract.
  - (b) The principal will pay for all labor, including employee benefits, and material furnished or used upon the work; taxes and contributions to the state of Washington, and all damages that may be sustained by any person, firm, corporation, or other entity due to a failure of the principal to make the installation or maintenance in accordance with this chapter or any applicable ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010 (3).
  - (c) Any person, firm, or corporation sustaining any damage or injury by reason of the principal's breach if the conditions mentioned in sections (a) and (b) may bring an action against the contractor and this account. The action shall be brought: (1) in the superior court of any county in which the assignor of the bond resides or transacts business; or (2) in the county in which the work was performed which allegedly caused the breach of the conditions set forth in (a) and (b) above. The action shall be maintained and prosecuted as other civil actions.
- (3) If a judgment is entered against the assigned savings account, the Director of the Department of Labor and Industries, upon receipt of a certified copy of a final judgment, shall pay the judgment from the assigned savings account. The liability of the Department shall not exceed the amount of the deposit, and judgments are paid in the order received.

I have read and understand the conditions of the assignment of savings account and of the electrical /telecommunications contractor's license.
