Bridging the Gap Training

Self-Insurance will be offering this training course beginning November 2021. It is a 12-hour course held over two days. The course is designed to help claims administrators who are new to Washington state workers' compensation learn to use the resources available to answer questions about workers' compensation. It will also provide an overview for those who may be gearing up to take the Self-Insurance Claims Administrator Test. Topics include:

- Claim Validity
- Wage Calculations
- Loss of Earning Power (LEP)
- Minimum and Maximum Time-loss Rates
- RCWs and WACs

COST: This is no cost to you!

Credits have not been awarded; they will be reviewed prior to the course.

Certification Test Exemption Ending

The exemption that allows claim administrators with one year of experience to take the Self-Insurance Claims Administrator Certification Test without first completing the Core Curriculum Training expires on Dec. 31, 2021.

We are offering the certification test remotely. For details on how to register for the test, go to the Claims Administrator Testing and Certification web page. You may also call training at 360-902-6904.
