INTRODUCTION

This document is an apprenticeship program standard. Apprenticeship program standards govern how an apprenticeship works and have specific requirements. This document will explain the requirements.

The director of the Department of Labor and Industries (L&I) appoints the Washington State Apprenticeship and Training Council (WSATC) to regulate apprenticeship program standards. The director appoints and deputizes an assistant director to be known as the supervisor of apprenticeship who oversees administrative functions through the apprenticeship section at the department.

The WSATC is the sole regulatory body for apprenticeship standards in Washington. It approves, administers, and enforces apprenticeship standards, and recognizes apprentices when either registered with L&I's apprenticeship section, or under the terms and conditions of a reciprocal agreement. WSATC also must approve any changes to apprenticeship program standards.

Apprenticeship programs have sponsors. A sponsor operates an apprenticeship program and declares their purpose and policy herein to establish an organized system of registered apprenticeship education and training. The sponsor recognizes WSATC authority to regulate and will submit a revision request to the WSATC when making changes to an apprenticeship program standard.

Apprenticeships are governed by federal law (29 U.S.C 50), federal regulations (29 CFR Part 29 & 30), state law (49.04 RCW) and administrative rules (WAC 296-05). These standards conform to all of the above and are read together with federal and state laws and rules

Standards are changed with WSATC approval. Changes are binding on apprentices, sponsors, training agents, and anyone else working under an agreement governed by the standards. Sponsors may have to maintain additional information as supplemental to these standards. When a standard is changed, sponsors are required to notify apprentices and training agents. If changes in federal or state law make any part of these standards illegal, the remaining parts are still valid and remain in force. Only the part made illegal by changes in law is invalid. L&I and the WSATC may cooperate to make corrections to the standards if necessary to administer the standards.

Sections of these standards identified as bold “insert text” fields are specific to the individual program standards and may be modified by a sponsor submitting a revised standard for approval by the WSATC. All other sections of these standards are boilerplate and may only be modified by the WSATC. See WAC 296-05-003 for the definitions necessary for use with these standards.

*All sponsor inserted language must meet or exceed minimum requirements as established by the appropriate occupations outlined in these standards for each occupation. Minimum Guideline requirements have been emboldened, italicized and captured in bordering and may not be revised.

Sponsor Introductory Statement (Required):

[The science of electricity is constantly changing and expanding. With this increasing knowledge, the Electrical Industry has expanded from nothing to the third largest industry in the United States in less than one century. This rapid expansion means that the electrical apprentice must be given a sound basic training in the knowledge of the trade, supplemented by sufficient instruction in the theories of electrical science.

The electrical trade is unique in that it is mechanical, technical and professional. It must select people who have a natural aptitude for using tools and, at the same time, are gifted enough to master the intricacies of electric science, who can and will keep up with the progress of the industry, and master a knowledge of the thousands of installation and maintenance procedures.

The Electrical Industry, by its very nature, places a high degree of personal responsibility on the individual journey-level worker. While supervision is provided on many jobs, the electricians still find themselves called upon constantly to make decisions regarding the best and safest method of installation to produce a given result.

Electrical installations today have become very complex and a faulty installation can prove extremely expensive and hazardous. Much of the important work is hidden from view when the job is completed, and a defect in this hidden work can cause property damage and endanger human life. The modern journey-level worker takes pride in the appearance of his/her work, as well as in the technical correctness and structural soundness.

The Apprenticeship Committee has dedicated its time to develop an efficient program of apprenticeship so that the apprentice of today, through a systematic program of schooling and on-the-job training, can become the qualified all-around journey-level worker of tomorrow. The degree of success that the Apprenticeship Committee has in its operation will depend entirely upon the willingness of the various segments of the Electrical Industry in the area to cooperate in this type of joint activity.

All functions of the Apprenticeship Committee shall be on the basis of non-profit endeavor for the good and welfare of apprenticeship and training for the industry and for the best interest of the apprentice, management, labor and the public.]

I. GEOGRAPHIC AREA COVERED:

The sponsor must train inside the area covered by these standards. If the sponsor wants to train outside the area covered by these standards, the sponsor must enter a portability agreement with a sponsor outside the area, and provide evidence of such an agreement for compliance purposes. Portability agreements permit training agents to use apprentices outside the area covered by the standards. Portability agreements are governed by WAC 296-05-009.

V. INITIAL PROBATIONARY PERIOD:

An initial probationary period applies to all apprentices, unless the apprentice has transferred from another program. During an initial probationary period, an apprentice can be discharged without appeal rights. An initial probationary period is stated in hours or competency steps of employment. The initial probationary period is not reduced by advanced credit or standing. During an initial probationary period, apprentices receive full credit for hours and competency steps toward completion of their apprenticeship. Transferred apprentices are not subject to additional initial probationary periods [WAC 296-05-003].

The initial probationary period is [WAC 296-05-015(22)]:

- A. The period following the apprentice's registration into the program. An initial probationary period must not be longer than twenty percent of the term of the entire apprenticeship, or longer than a year from the date the apprenticeship is registered. The WSATC can grant exemptions for longer initial probationary periods if required by law.

- B. The period in which the WSATC or the supervisor of apprenticeship may terminate an apprenticeship agreement at the written request by any affected party. The sponsor or the apprentice may terminate the agreement without a hearing or stated cause. An appeal process is not available to apprentices in their initial probationary period.

The first nine hundred sixty (960) hours of employment shall constitute the initial probationary period or one year from date of registration, whichever occurs first.

3. Residential Electrician (02)
The first eight hundred (800) hours of employment shall constitute the initial probationary period or one year from date of registration, whichever occurs first.

4. The first 1600 hours of OJT shall constitute the initial probationary period for Inside Wireman Apprentices. The Low Energy/Sound and Communication Technician Apprentice initial probationary period shall be the first 960 hours of OJT and the Residential Electrician Apprentice initial probationary period shall be the first 800 hours of OJT. During this period, the apprenticeship agreement may be canceled by either party without the formality of a hearing. The Registration Agency shall be notified of such cancellations.

5. During the initial probationary period, the JATC shall make a thorough review of the apprentice's abilities and development both on the job and in related training. Advanced standing for previous training or experience does not reduce the initial probationary period.

6. Applicants awarded advanced standing at the time of registration shall have their demonstrated skill, knowledge, and overall performance evaluated during the initial probationary period. Adjustments, to the assigned period of apprenticeship and/or level of related classroom training may be made during the initial probationary period, following appropriate reviews and evaluation by the JATC. Such reviews and determinations shall be properly documented and applied equally to all apprentices.

LU 112 – NECA ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP COMMITTEE

- 7. Prior to the end of the initial probationary period, action must be taken on each probationary apprentice to end the probation, or cancel the apprenticeship agreement. All interested parties shall be notified of such action.

VI. RATIO OF APPRENTICES TO JOURNEY LEVEL WORKERS

Supervision is the necessary education, assistance, and control provided by a journey-level employee on the same job site at least seventy-five percent of each working day, unless otherwise approved by the WSATC. Sponsors ensure apprentices are supervised by competent, qualified journey-level employees. Journey level-employees are responsible for the work apprentices perform, in order to promote the safety, health, and education of the apprentice.

- A. The journey-level employee must be of the same apprenticeable occupation as the apprentice they are supervising unless as noted above or otherwise allowed by the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) or the Washington Administrative Code (WAC) and approved by the WSATC.
- B. The numeric ratio of apprentices to journey-level employees may not exceed one apprentice per journey-level worker [WAC 296-05-015(5)].
- C. Apprentices will work the same hours as journey-level workers, except when such hours may interfere with related/supplemental instruction.
- D. Any variance to the rules and/or policies stated in this section must be approved by the WSATC.
- E. The ratio must be described in a specific and clear manner, as to the application in terms of job site, work group, department or plant:

[The ratio of apprentices to journey-level workers is as follows:]

1. General Electrician (01)

The employer is allowed a ratio of one (1) apprentice to one (1) journey-level worker per job site, unless one of the following conditions is met:

No more than two apprentices for every journey level Residential (02) or Limited Energy (06) specialty electrician when working in that electrician’s specialty.

Apprentices with a minimum of 7,000 hours of OJT will be allowed to work without the direct supervision of a journey-level person provided that they have been issued a six-month, nonrenewable, unsupervised electrical training certificate by the Washington State Labor and Industries Electrical Section. Such apprentices will not be counted for the purposes of a ratio calculation nor be allowed to supervise other apprentices.

LU 112 – NECA ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP COMMITTEE

Inside Wireman Apprentice

The overall ratio is 1 apprentices for every 1 journey-level worker. This ratio can be used on each job, contract or shop in conformance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement.]

2. Limited Energy Electrician (06)

Two (2) apprentices may be employed for each one (1) journeyman as is consistent with the Department of Labor & Industries Electrical Licensing Section. At no time shall the ratio exceed two (2) apprentices to one (1) journeyman on each jobsite.

Low Energy/Sound & Communication Apprentice

The overall ratio is 2 apprentices for every 3 journey-level technicians or fraction thereof. This ratio can be used on each job, contract or shop in conformance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement.]

3. Residential Electrician (02)

Two (2) apprentices may be employed for each one (1) journeyman as is consistent with the Department of Labor & Industries Electrical Licensing Section. At no time shall the ratio exceed two (2) apprentices to one (1) journeyman on each jobsite.

Residential Electrician Apprentice

Every training agent who steadily employs one or more residential journey-level workers may have two residential apprentices for every residential journey-level worker on the job in conformance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement.]

Supervision and Ratio of apprentices registered in the above occupations shall follow requirements established under RCW 19.28.161.

[Apprentices with a minimum of 7,000 hours of OJT will be allowed to work without the direct supervision of a journey-level person provided that they have been issued a six-month, nonrenewable, unsupervised electrical training certificate by the Washington State Labor and Industries Electrical Section. Such apprentices will not be counted for the purposes of a ratio calculation nor be allowed to supervise other apprentices.]

VII. APPRENTICE WAGES AND WAGE PROGRESSION:

- A. Apprentices must be paid at least Washington’s minimum wage, unless a local ordinance or a collective bargaining agreement require a higher wage. Apprentices must be paid according to a progressively increasing wage scale. The wage scale for apprentices is based on the specified journey-level wage for their occupation. Wage increases are based on hours worked or competencies attained. The sponsor determines wage increases. Sponsors must submit the journey-level wage at least annually or whenever changed to the department as an addendum to these standards. Journey-level wage reports may be submitted on a form provided by the department. Apprentices and others should contact the sponsor or the Department for the most recent Journey-level wage rate.
- B. Sponsors can grant advanced standing, and grant a wage increase, when apprentices demonstrate abilities and mastery of their occupation. When advanced standing is granted, the sponsor notifies the employer/training agent of the wage increase the apprenticeship program standard requires.
- C. Wage Progression Schedules

VIII. WORK PROCESSES:

LU 112 – NECA ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP COMMITTEE

The apprentice shall receive on the job instruction and work experience as is necessary to become a qualified journey-level worker versed in the theory and practice of the occupation covered by these standards. The following is a condensed schedule of work experience, which every apprentice shall follow as closely as conditions will permit. The following work process descriptions pertain to the occupation being defined.

[In order that the apprentice may acquire the necessary skills of the trade in its various categories, they (as near as possible) shall be provided with employment in these categories with specified amounts of experience required.

All such work shall be performed under the supervision of a journey-level worker. Supervision should not be of such nature as to prevent the development of responsibility and initiative.

At the end of each progression period of employment, the Apprenticeship Committee shall examine the progress of the apprentice on the job and in related instruction. Action must be taken on each apprentice to approve advancement, extend present rating, or cancel his/her registration.]

A. General Electrician (01)

In no case shall:

1. The term of apprenticeship be less than 8000 hours, or
2. Work hours in electrical specialty occupations, such as the residential (02) or limited energy (06) specialties, be more than 4000 cumulative hours for the term of apprenticeship, or

INTRODUCTION

As the Electrical Construction Industry improves each day, so strives the Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee to improve the education and training of the younger generations for the Electrical Construction Industry.

LU 112 – NECA ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP COMMITTEE

The rules set in these Policies and Procedures are stringent to promote a quality craftsman in the Electrical Construction Industry, and outstanding citizens for the communities. The Electrical Construction Industry is responsible for maintaining the apprenticeship training program and, by the same token, the apprentice has an obligation to the Electrical Construction Industry to conduct themselves in a responsible manner.

As the apprentice is better informed of the apprenticeship program and conscientiously assumes their responsibilities during their apprenticeship, they will be better prepared with the proper skills and knowledge necessary to assume a better position as Journey-level Electrical Worker in the Electrical Construction Industry when they graduate.

Let us strive together as apprentices with Labor and Management to make this industry the best industry in this nation and the world.

JATC RESPONSIBILITIES

ARTICLE 10 - PURPOSE OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

“ON-THE-JOB” TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

- 10-1. The purpose of these policies and procedures is to unify the training program, which covers the jurisdiction of Local Union #112 of the IBEW and the Inland Empire Chapter of the NECA. This is a joint venture between Labor and Management to improve the industry through training for the communities and the future generations.
- a. The JATC is authorized to administer and enforce these Apprenticeship Policies and procedures under the guidelines of the Standards registered with the State of Washington, Department of Labor and Industries, Apprenticeship Section.
 - b. These Standards shall be governed by the Washington State Apprenticeship Act (R.C.W. 49.04) and the Federal Labor Standards (29 CFR 29), which govern employment and training in apprenticeable occupations.

- 20-9. Vacations will not be scheduled during the related educational school year. Exceptions may be made through the JATC or their representative only and only when requested in writing.
- 20-10. No tobacco use of any kind is allowed in the JATC building. A smoking area will be provided during lunch break times.

LU 112 – NECA ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP COMMITTEE

- 20-11. The use or possession of alcohol, drugs, weapons or firearms by an apprentice at any time on JATC premises, or on the job site (including company vehicles), is strictly prohibited. Any person violating this policy will be subject to discipline under the terms of this policy up to and including termination.

Tutors will be paid at the prevailing journey-level wireman rate by the apprentice. Arrangements will be made at the convenience of the tutor.
- 20-15. Any test missed due to absence of the apprentice may be made up at the convenience of the class instructor and before the next scheduled training.
- 20-16. An apprentice who has not paid School Fees prior to the first day of class for their scheduled week of school will not be allowed in class. Every class session that is missed because of non-payment of School Fees will be an unexcused absence and made up under normal procedures.

"ON-THE-JOB" TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

ARTICLE 30 - RESPONSIBILITY OF APPRENTICE
