MEETING CALLED TO ORDER @ 9:03am by Chair Riker

ROLL CALL: Present: Mark Riker, Ed Kommers, Ed Holmes, Dave D'Hondt, April Sims, Ron Storvick, Kenna May

GREETINGS: Liz Smith, Deputy Director of Labor and Industries

MINUTES: January 16, 2020 (WSATC Quarterly Meeting) M/S/C to approve.

CERTIFICATES OF MERITORIOUS SERVICE:

Name	Organization
Corrie Moreland	Operating Engineers Regional Training Program JATC
Tammy St. Paul	Operating Engineers Regional Training Program JATC
Joseph (Zack) Zarathiewicz	IAM/Boeing Joint Apprenticeship Committee (previously given)

CORRESPONDENCE: Apprenticeship Program Manager, Jody Robbins, presented and certified the Correspondence Log as true and correct summary of communications sent and received by the Department during the past quarter. The council approved the Correspondence Log as presented. M/S/C to approve.

SPECIAL REPORTS:

Anna Nickolaeva, Career Connect Washington Manager provided a Career Connect Washington Update and took questions from the Council members
Alan Lundeen, DOSH Standards Technical Services Manager spoke about the High Hazard stakeholder meeting on August 13 to get s to input and questions on the required safety training and implementation of House Bill 1817.

REPORTS:

Department of Enterprise Services, State of Washington

Janet Jansen reported that Roland Orr has retired and interviews for his replacement will happen in the next few weeks. Ms. Jansen indicated projects over the Apprentice Labor Hour requirement threshold are advertised to require contractors to submit an Apprenticeship Plan to meet the 15% labor hour requirement.

Employment Security Department

Marie Bruin said ESD received $12 million for National Dislocated Worker Grant and $12 million for Employment Recovery Dislocated Worker Grant. The Disaster Recovery Grant is focused on supporting jobs that will help to recover from the disaster and the Employment Recovery covers training, jobs and other resources in order to get folks back to work and/or trained for a skill that they need. The WDC's have pivoted very quickly to be able to respond in a virtual world. Currently unemployment is 473 percent higher than last year on claims.

Councilmember Sims asked Ms. Bruin to clarify the work being done in Pierce County. Marie reported Pierce County Workforce Development Council was working with the Laborers and AJAC to develop a hospitality apprenticeship with MOD Pizza. Councilmember Sims noted Mod Pizza is not a union company and the Laborers and AJAC do not represent or have occupations in hospitality. Marie will check into this and report back to Councilmember Sims.

Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction

Becky Wallace, Executive Director, Career and Technical Education introduced Roger Rich, Supervisor of Skilled and Technical Sciences. Becky said their focus right now has been on supporting School Districts and their planning for reopening in the fall, specifically how to support hands-on teaching programs, maintaining the quality of experience for students while maintaining health and safety.

Oregon State Apprenticeship and Training Council

Lisa Ford, Director of Apprenticeship and Training introduced herself. Ms. Ford said they are in the process of reevaluating many of their current processes and identifying more efficient means of providing better technical support to their many programs. They no longer require the submission of social security numbers, are accepting electronic signatures and copies of agreements and no longer requiring committee signature forms for council submissions. The internal compliance process is also being worked on. Lisa said some programs are still accepting applications and conducting interviews.

State Board for Community and Technical Colleges

Danny Marshall stated the headcount for apprentices in the fall quarter was a new record high of all time with an enrollment of 9,579. The largest count before was 8,481 fall of 2007. 24 of 26 quarters have seen an increase in the number of apprentices enrolled within the system. Only 56 percent of the people will report on ethnicity and race within the system. Six new occupations are on the agenda and all six are being recommended for approval. Councilmember Kommers asked when reviewing the RSI's on the new high hazard occupations who reviewed the RSIs. Danny stated he would submit a list through the Department for the council.

US DOL Office of Apprenticeship

No representative in attendance to give a report.

Washington State Apprenticeship Coordinators' Association

James Owens, Chair, said they held their first virtual meeting and combined it with the JRRC. Jody Robbins told everyone the three Ws: Wear your mask; Wash your hands; and Watch your distance. James spoke about the amazing partnership of community partners, state agencies and stakeholders. Of the accomplishments during the turmoil.

Washington State Department of Transportation

Jane Rockwell talked about the WSDOT Youth Direct contract was awarded to the Pacific Northwest Ironworkers and RS Services; it will be providing employment preparation, barrier removal, financial assistance to secure housing and placement into direct-entry pre-apprenticeship training for up to 20 individuals. $100,000 in scholarships have been given directly to individual who are wanting to get training to work in the highway Construction trades through the On-the-Job Training Support Services program.

Washington Student Achievement Council

Laura Bach, Associate Director said they are fully functioning at this time. Veteran OJT compliance is a challenge but is moving forward. Jeff Southard spoke about the Apprenticeship Grant Program. They have a web page on the Washington Student Achievement Council (WSAC) website; this has been updated for Apprenticeship Program Sponsors to complete a form in order to be able to award grant funding to your apprentices.

Workforce Training and Education Coordinating Board

No representative in attendance to give a report.

Secretary, Washington State Apprenticeship and Training Council

Chris Bowe said there are two new Training Agent Compliance cases for the quarter; both have been resolved through submission of voluntary corrective action plans. There are no Final Orders to report. Chris stated there are two positions in the council up for appointment. The terms of Ed Holmes and Ed Kommers will expire on October 15, 2020. Chris welcomed Jacob Hovde who recently joined the Grants team. Aubre Nelson will be joining later in the month in Tacoma as an Apprenticeship Consultant. Chris welcomed Alaina Williams to our Central Office team in Tumwater. He concluded by reporting that work continues on ARTS 2.0 with deployment of the Apprenticeship Preparation Program tracking piece by the end of July.

WSATC Electrical Subcommittee

No report.

WSATC Reciprocity Subcommittee

No report.

WSATC Special Subcommittee for Apprenticeship Preparation

No report.

WSATC Tie-Breaker Subcommittee

No report.

WSATC Tribal Liaison Subcommittee

Christina Riley said our TERO brothers and sisters have had to learn how to operate remotely; the Internet ability and technologies is a huge hardship for them. Please push for continued efforts in expanding broadband width for rural America.

WSATC Tuition Issues Subcommittee

No report.

WSATC WAC/RCW Policy Subcommittee

April Sims said changes to Chapter 296-05 WAC became effective July 16. Changes include: EEO updates to align with 29 CFR Part 30; Apprenticeship Utilization Requirements verification language to comply with RCW 49.04.035 which became effective January 1, 2020, key language inadvertently omitted during the 2018 revision is clarified or placed back into the rule to be consistent with the current language or the current agency paractive or interpretation of law. The next rule-writing exercise include: Oregon's rule language around unilateral or single-employer Sponsors in building and construction Trade occupations; define the objection process to include standing determination; definition of supervision in a changing work environment. The Committee determined the following would be best handled thru Council policies: You in Apprenticeship Program (OJT program, Apprenticeship Prep, Registered Apprenticeship, or a combination of these); On-the-Job Training hour reporting time frames; RSI reform. Other policies such as a better description of what constitutes an OJT program and WAC 296-05-015 changes will be addressed as time allows.

The Chair made a motion to submit the draft of Youth Apprenticeship Standards to the Council, to go through the process with the intention of considering it for adoption and approval at the October 2020 State Apprenticeship Council meeting M/S/C

WSATC Compliance Review and Retention Subcommittee (CRRS)

Chair of the Subcommittee, Mark Riker, presented the minutes from the CRRS meeting held on July 6, 2020 and asked for a motion to approve.

Councilmember May asked for the CRRS Minutes to be amended to reflect an Apprenti representative indicated there were no apprentices duly registered federally with the Department of Labor. The program-reviewed document for the Department, dated April 17, 2020, provided to CRRS indicates that in fact there were Washington apprentices duly registered with the Department of Labor. M/S/C minutes as amended.

CRRS ADJOURNMENT

WSATC Members

Member D’Hondt thanked Chair Riker for all of his hard work and dedication with the Governor’s Roundtable to get construction back going. It was a pleasure working with Chair Riker and it was a very collegial effort. He also mentioned AGC of Washington’s Education Foundation has Core Plus approval for construction approved statewide. Pilot projects will be running this fall. AGC of Washington just had their 3rd annual “Culture of Care Week” which is a program to promote company cultures of diversity and inclusion and making jobsites welcoming. We started with 100 companies and now are up to 215 member companies. In April AGC of America adopted our program in April and is nationwide with 26,000 member companies.

Chair Riker stated it was his pleasure to work on the Governor’s Construction Roundtable and Member D’Hondt was very helpful during the process.

A break was called at 10:34am. The meeting reconvened at 10:46am with a roll call.

GOOD AND WELFARE

Chair Riker expressed deep gratitude to the Department for putting together an extremely smooth process and doing the due diligence and legwork, for the past several weeks, to get us practiced and up to speed with how to run a meeting in a digital format. He said it made it easy for him as the Chair. Chair Riker said he was grateful for all levels of the Department and for all of the Apprenticeship Consultants who are working tirelessly with the programs throughout the state during these challenging times.

Member May echoed the Chairs sentiments in acknowledging the Departments staff.

Mike Ankney said the Spokane Construction Career Days has been cancelled for 2020 and will resume in 2021.

Chris Bowe thanked the Sponsors who have said good things about the staff at L&I and successfully pulling off a meeting by remote access. Chris gave his heartfelt thanks to all of the staff at L&I.

Shana Peschek congratulated Tami St. Paul on her retirement.

Patrick Martin showed a picture of the team to recognize everyone who came in to the office under COVID 19 safety protocols to deliver the first ever virtual WSATC meeting; pictured were Patrick Martin, Brittany Craighead; Bruce Koch; Evan Hamilton; Jim Kaltenbaugh; Lynn Jacobs; Kaine Cox; Jacob Hovde; Teri Gardner.

Member Kommers said the staff is also managing the virtual hearings very well.
